CHURCH DIRECTORY

Later this month we will be reviewing the Church Directory, adding new people, removing people who are no longer part of the fellowship and making sure that the information we have for everyone is still current.

Those who are already in the Directory will be asked to confirm that we have the correct information. Those new to the church should take a copy of our Privacy Policy and complete the Consent Form. This gives us your details, while keeping us in line with GDPR.

Please ask a steward for a Consent Form if you haven't previously completed one.

Thank you,

A STORY FROM ISAAC – INTERNATIONAL SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND ADDICTION COALITION

"Abra!, Abra!, Abra!" shouted all of the rehab residents at the annual Christmas celebration. ("Abra-(o)" is Portuguese for Open (it)!). One of the residents in the program, we will call him Rui – a man off the streets - was experiencing his first Christmas celebration ever. He stood there speechless, freezing the moment in time, and just stared at his gift. All of the prodding of his fellow residents could not compel him to open the gift. The gift was from a "secret" friend who had been sending him notes of encouragement and hints of his identity over the previous 4 weeks. Each of the residents would open his gift, and then try to guess who the secret friend was.

But Rui just stood there staring at the gift. At last, he spoke in a timid voice which betrayed a bit of shame he might have been feeling for not opening the gift. He spoke in a whisper: "This is the first gift I have ever received in my life, please let me just hold it for a while." The room fell silent, and many, myself included, had eyes full of tears. What can you say during a moment so special?

This story causes me to ponder many things. One is: how many in the world are offered a gift far greater than anyone can imagine, and don't open it? So many times, the gift of Christ remains available to so many, but is left unopened. It's within one's grasp, but it is never unwrapped and known. This gift is not just for Christmas but is there to be opened at any time – it is truly a gift to be opened and savoured!! "To all who receive Him ...He gave the right to become the children of God." John 1v12
